TELEGRAPHIC.

STEWART IN VIRGINIA.

He Unmasks the Conspiracy Against Him

A TERRIBLE DOMESTIC TRAGEDY IN UKIAH.

The San Francisco Star Bolts the Democracy.

Special to the Appeal.

Stewart in Virginia.

Virginia City, Sept. 24.—Senator Stewart spoke to a packed audience at the Opera House this evening.

In the course of his remarks he unmasked a conspiracy against his candidacy by which most of the nine holdover Senators he helped elect two years ago were making a combination with the Harrison Republicans of the State to defeat him in the interests of Wall Street.

He included in the list of conspirators, E. Strother, A. C. Cleveland, E. O. Farrington, W. M. Chandler, Geo. F. Turrettin, M. D. Foley and Tremmer Coffin. These men appeared at the Republican Convention in Virginia City and passed resolutions condemning Harrison and vowing to stand by silver, and now that he was following the line of action thus laid down, to the letter, these same men had turned tail on their declarations and were conspiring to defeat him.

He showed up the motive which prompted these conspirators to make secret combinations against him, and flayed the opposition amid loud applause.

The old Senator threw down the gauntlet to the gold bugs of Nevada and opened the fight on this class in a shape that was received with applause and cheers.

The enthusiasm is very great here for the ticket headed by Stewart and Newlands, and will sweep Storey county.

A WHITE ELEPHANT.

The Republicans of Ormsby Have One.

It was not harmonious in yesterday's Republican Convention.

When it came to the Assembly ticket Dr. Winnie, who was elected by a handsome majority at the primaries, was reported not to be for Bartine for the U. S. Senate.

When called on to endorse the platform and Bartine he declined to do so, and Dr. Lee and Evan Williams were sent for.

The Convention proposed to slay him bodily off the ticket, but after the conference the old leaders concluded that they hadn't better do so, as Winnie had a host of friends who would go over to the enemy in November if there was any monkey business with Winnie.

They gave him five days to pledge to Bartine, but he said he might as well have five years as five days, and was ready to say that he would vote for a Republican for the Senate, but would not pledge to Bartine; further than that he had nothing to say.

The leaders finally acknowledged that the party was too weak to put Winnie off the ticket and he remained on in spite of the fact that he is not pledged to Bartine.

After the convention he said that in the primaries of last Tuesday he went to Bartine to know if he would pull for him, but Bartine said he had made other arrangements and could not help him.

The ring had fixed everything up for Meyers, Gordon and Parkinson.

Winnie then made his fight on his own hook and downed Parkinson.

He says he had no help from Bartine, and don't consider that he owes him any allegiance.

His bold, sensible stand has made him many friends and the party dare not displace him.

A few years ago, how the Republican County Committee would have cracked the party lash over Winnie for refusing to be possessed by the ring. Now they dare not enforce order in the school. The bad boy who defies the teachers gets away with it, and the balance of the boys enjoy the fun.

What a Difference Now.

UNITED STATES SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 6, 1892.

Mr. M. H. SLATER, Esq.—Dear Sir:

I notice that certain parties in Colorado are criticizing senators in favor of silver for not taking up the silver bill in the senate before, or while the Bland bill was pending in the house. We will do all we can to serve the cause of free silver in this congress and prepare the way for as effective a fight as possible in the future, and we are now disturbed by the hostile criticism of those who are actively engaged in securing the nomination of a candidate (Harrison) who uses the great power conferred on him by the people to thwart the wishes of the people by preventing legislation in their interest touching the silver question, one who has for more than two years past declared his intention to veto a free coinage act should it pass both branches of congress. Yours very truly,

H. M. TELLER.

Ring Trickery.

Every one does not know as asserted in the News, that the reason for placing a straight out Democrat on the Republican primary ticket Tuesday was to ratify the election of School Trustees last may. A Primary election is a family affair not a ratification meeting. A great many good Republicans do know however, that the Republican County Central Committee issued a proclamation for the nomination of two School Trustees. One for long and one for short term, and that this same committee stultified themselves by their subsequent action and offered a needless insult to a life long Republican who unwillingly obeyed their treacherous call.

ALL SORTS.

Be sure and get a seat for the Little Lord tomorrow night.

The signal flags indicate cooler, though fair—not District Fair—weather.

The party given by the Social Club last evening was a very pleasant affair.

James G. Blaine did not take enough interest in the late election in Maine to even register.

The Wadsworth Dispatch, a well printed little paper has reached this office. It will do Wadsworth considerable good.

Harry Brown won the quarter mile bicycle race at Reno Friday in 43 seconds and got second in the mile State championship.

The attendance at the Reno Fair was larger last week than on any previous occasion, and the receipts several hundred dollars more.

His Lordship.

Little Georgie Cooper, the greatest living child actress, will appear as Little Lord Fauntleroy at the Opera House Monday evening next supported by the Georgie Woodthorpe Company, a first class dramatic organization, who are now playing with great success at the State Fair in Reno. The company will remain during the entire Fair Week, presenting a change of programme nightly and a grand matinee Saturday afternoon, for the benefit of the ladies and children. The management is to be congratulated on securing so strong an attraction for Fair Week, and we hope they will be rewarded by the most liberal patronage, as by so doing our citizens will encourage them in their efforts to furnish the amusement loving public with nothing but the cream of theatrical attractions.

A Clumsy Lie.

The following telegraphic correspondence speaks for itself:

Carson City, Sept. 24, 1892.

To W. M. Stewart, Virginia City—Tribune of this evening makes statement that you have agreed to swap off State Prison for Washee County Legislative vote.

SAM DAVIS.

Virginia City, Sept. 24, 1892. Sam Davis, Carson City—The charge is false. Brand it as a lie. W. M. Stewart.

Benton's Liniment.

Which has been used in Carson for over twenty-five years, has saved many an ache and pain to those who know it. It is really intended for horses but works with the same magical effect on the human. It is a powerful remedy and for rheumatism is the king of the world. Aches knocked out in short order. No horseman should be without a bottle. n6ff
